Scandinavian Handles

Thank you for your interest in our products!

Scandinavian Handles is a relatively new brand in the Polish market, established in 2017 to enrich the furniture accessories segment. Our carefully selected items come from trusted workshops across Europe. Our offices and warehouses in Sweden and Poland ensure quick delivery regardless of location.

We offer a wide range of unique items from local craftsmen in Scandinavia, the UK, Spain, Poland, Germany, and Italy — characterized by beautiful design and top quality. Our offer also includes lamps, switches, bathroom and kitchen accessories, and more.

ADDITIONAL BENEFITS

50/50 discount program

is a unique offer addressed to our Partners, which allows them to share the discount with their customers and generate additional commission. The program is dedicated to companies that want to offer more attractive prices to their customers, while at the same time increasing their income through commission on completed orders. Thanks to an individual discount code, Partners can offer customers a 5% discount and at the same time receive 5% commission on the value of the order.

How the commission works?

1. You give the individual discount code to the retail customer.
2. Customer makes purchase on ScandinavianHandles , entering discount code when placing order - receives 5% discount.
3. At the end of each month, we send a summary of orders processed using the code and a summary of the commission due.
4. The commission is paid on the basis of a VAT invoice or bill issued by you.

The commission is charged only for orders in which your discount code was used. If the customer does not use the code, the commission will not be charged. If the customer returns the entire order, the commission is not due. If the customer returns part of the order, the commission is charged only for the products that have not been returned.

Product availability

On our website, it is possible to order products even if there are 0 items in stock. This means that if a product is not currently in stock, you can still add it to your cart and place an order. In this case, we will deliver the order according to the agreed delivery schedule.

It is worth noting that many of our products are handicrafts, made in factories located throughout Europe, and production is on an individual order. This is a great asset, which makes each product unique and special. If you want to receive the product faster, we encourage you to contact us for an approximate delivery date.

Delivery and shipping cost

Deliveries are made in cooperation with courier companies DPD, ensuring fast and safe transport of shipments.

Koszty dostawy:

1. The cost of delivery in Poland (for the purchase above PLN 250):
Free.

2. International delivery cost:

- The cost of delivery in UE: PLN 69,99,

- The cost of delivery beyond the borders of the European Union:
PLN 650.

How to place orders?

Due to the large number of orders and the automatic discount calculation system, we do not accept orders placed via email, phone or Messenger. Only orders placed through our website allow us to properly calculate discounts and build progression to the next discount thresholds.

A proforma invoice is issued automatically after entering the necessary data when placing an order.

The prices listed are retail prices.

Discounts are calculated automatically, they are shown in the marked box in the photo below and on the proforma invoice.

Catalogs and price lists

Our offer is constantly evolving, so a traditional paper catalog cannot reflect the fullness of our product range. We want to avoid unnecessary paper production, so the best and most up-to-date catalog is our website scandinavian-handles

Thus, our price list is always up-to-date and easy to check online. On scandinavian-handles you will find retail prices for all products, and wholesale prices are calculated as the retail price minus the discount granted.

In addition, the Partner discount is automatically taken into account when placing an order, and its amount is displayed in the cart summary after logging into the account with the assigned Partner status.

Displays and Patterns

Our policy is simple and based on sincerity and authenticity. We want every fixture we offer to be exactly what it really is - with its unique texture, texture and charm that can delight and attract attention. We strive to make our products not only functional, but also a beautiful decorative element that enhances the character of any interior.

In the interest of your satisfaction and trust, we offer a 50% display discount on the products of your choice. We will be happy to advise you on the selection of products that are of the greatest interest to our customers and work perfectly in various arrangements, providing both aesthetics and functionality.

Important Note!

Before placing a display order, please email us to request a discount code for this type of order.

Returns

We are happy to announce that in the interest of even better cooperation with our partners, we have decided to extend the period for returning goods. From now on, all ordered products can be returned within 2 months of receiving the order, instead of the previous 14 days. For us, this is another step in building long-term partnerships based on trust and flexibility.

Why we made this decision?

We realize how important it is for our partners to have enough time to evaluate products, especially when they are part of larger projects that may require careful analysis or consultation with end customers. The increased turnaround period gives you more confidence that the products you purchase will fully meet your requirements, and if necessary, there will be enough time to make any returns.

Benefits of extended payback period:

- More decision time: Increased turnaround time allows you to better assess whether the product fits your needs, both functionally and aesthetically.
- Safety in large projects: When fulfilling larger orders for end customers, the extended turnaround time provides assurance that products that do not meet expectations can be returned in a timely manner.
- Flexibility in inventory management: We know that sometimes market situations can change and purchasing decisions may not always be immediate. Extending the return period gives you more flexibility in managing your inventory and offerings. All details of the return process, including policies and procedures, remain the same.
